Blue Mound Golf and Country Club, Monroe Country Club Say "Yes" to the NOER CENTER

Blue Mound Golf and Country Club, Monroe Country Club and a number of individuals have added their commitment to turfgrass research in Wisconsin since the last issue of The Grass Roots.

Jim and Lois Latham and Bob and Kathy Belfield made gifts to the NOER CENTER in the name of the late Joe Cannestra. Tom Schwab added to his initial gift. Thanks to each and every donor.

Most obvious from the HONOR ROLL is who isn't there — some of the state's biggest and most prosperous clubs. This editor still believes no official of an absent club is against turfgrass research. This makes the absence of those clubs even more incredible.

And embarrassing.
