

ROUND THREE

By Monroe S. Miller

How's your grade in this class so far? Are you passing? Do you know of any WGCSA member who has batted 1.000?

The quiz for this issue is easy, or at least easier. Part of the reason for this is that the editor is running out of answers; thinking of questions is simple.

Read that as a plea for help. If you've got what you believe would be an interesting question and answer for this feature, send them along to me.

Now sit up straight, write neatly (in pencil) and take the first quiz of the new decade.

1. What Wisconsin person holds the distinction of being the only person to have received the GCSAA Distinguished Service Award three times?
2. Speaking of the GCSAA's prestigious Distinguished Service Award, what Wisconsinite joins the person in question 1 as the only persons from our state to receive this award?

3. The annual meeting of the Golf Course Superintendents Association will be held on February 26 in Orlando during the GCSAA Golf Course Conference and Show. Two individuals seeking office have strong Wisconsin ties. Name them and their ties to the Badger State.
4. What Wisconsin family has three generations represented in the WGCSA as golf course superintendents?
5. What do the O.J. in O.J. NOER stand for?
