About the Cover:

Old Tom Morris, common ancestor for all golf course superintendents, at his golf course in St. Andrews, Scotland, the ancestral home for golf course superintendents. See story on page 23.

Cover design and artwork by designer and marketing specialist Jennifer Eberhardt.

"It was a wonderful spring morning. The air had a fresh washed smell, and you wondered how it could be that the world is so old and still looks and feels so brand new...The slant of the sun, wet on the grass, the buds popping out, a glistening plow rising out of the furrow to make its turn and the long first black mark behind it exploded by robins—how could anything ever have been newer?"

— William Steuber
Wisconsin writer
