

SHAW, CHENEQUA CC TEAM COMPETE IN JOHN DEERE TOURNEY

By Monroe S. Miller

Jim Shaw, golf course superintendent at Chenequa CC, represented Wisconsin and the WGCSA at the John Deere Team Championship Golf Tournament that was held October 27–29 at the Wild Wing Plantation in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina.

Also on the Chenequa team were Chad Beherens, Don Herrick, Wallie Schmidt and John Maguire. Beherens is the golf pro, Herrick is the clubhouse manager, Schmidt is the club president and Maguire is the John Deere representative from JW Turf.

The tournament was started in 1987 and has been dominated by Monroe CC for the past several years. It is a 36-hole, two day event played as a modified scramble. Shaw's group won the local tournament in late June that was held at the Geneva National Golf Course. They didn't place in the top ten at Myrtle Beach, but they did have a good time. Congratulations! 🏆
