About the Cover:

Our cover celebrates the 75th anniversary of the company founded in 1921 by a Danish immigrant named Knud Jacobsen. Racine has been home to this company for all of its history. In the world of golf turf management, Jacobsen is synonymous with quality taking pride in the fact that it "continues to make the world a greener place for people to live, work and play." We congratulate them on their illustrious 75 year past and wish the success for as long as there is grass to mow!

Jennifer L. Eberhardt captured the flavor of the company and its past with her excellent cover creation.

"The agricultural colleges are now in session. Is your boy there? You can hardly make a better investment for him than to give him a practical training along the lines of his life's work."
