About Our Cover:

The talented Jen Samerdyke has created a cover for this "it's almost spring" issue of The Grass Roots that illustrates the plants that form the basis of golf turf management in Wisconsin. Be certain to read Lori Ward Bocher's Personality Profile and learn more about our cover artist.

We praise thee, Lord, that thou doest for us exceedingly abundantly above all that we think or ask, in the astonishing vividness of green in spring, in the unexpected blessings that come to us at any time. We praise thee for all the varied shades and hues of green that bring us pleasure, each in its own season; we praise thee, Father, that always there is green, that always there is good. We praise thee in Christ's name. Amen.
