ABOUT THE COVER

Our tradition continues with the cover of this issue of The Grass Roots — the favorite hole of the host golf course superintendent of the State Amateur and the State Open.

The Bog's Tony Gonzales tells us that the Par 3 thirteenth hole offers one of the most breathtaking views on that beautiful golf course. The green is larger than it appears from the tee and challenges players because it normally plays into the wind.

Veteran Westmoor CC superintendent Jerry Kershasky chose the Par 3 fifth hole as his favorite. It has been recently restored to William Langford's 1957 redesign and will offer a championship challenge to players in the WPGA Open in August.

"The grass is not, in fact, always greener on the other side of the fence. Fences have nothing to do with it. The grass is greenest where it is watered. When crossing over fences, carry water with you and tend the grass wherever you may be."

- Robert Fulghum
