ABOUT THE COVER

The focus of golf tournaments in Wisconsin each summer is on the State Am and the State Open.

The State Am will be held at Brown County Golf Course. Superintendent Paul Delfosse chose the 9th hole at his course as his favorite hole. It's a 444 yard par 4 that features lots of trees and some water.

The State Open will tee it up on the Meadow Valley course at Kohler's Blackwolf Run. Superintendent Ron Bierwirth chose the 18th hole as his favorite. This 395 yard hole features a massive 22,000 ft<sup>2</sup> green that is shared with #18 on the River course. And, of course, thanks to Jen Samerdyke for her rendition. She worked from photos provided by photographer Jim McNicoll of Green Bay and Beth Keough of Kohler's communication department.

*"Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun."
