

OFFICIAL BULLETIN WISCONSIN GOLF COURSE SUPERINTENDENTS ASSOCIATION

September, 1976

Vol. 2 No. 7

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

The month of August brings you to the thought of finishing up your season. Have you planned ahead enough to be prepared for the Autumn season? If not, now is the time to look over your golf course. What programs can you undertake with the labor force you have? What about the machinery that is used in the fall season? It's time to get it tunned up and ready to go so it is ready to do the job for you. It's a little late to get the equipment out from the back room and then find out it needs new parts etc. The good golf course superintendent is never left behind, he's always looking forward.

Hey, have you played your golf course lately? If not, go out and try a round. You may be surprised at a few things you see from the golfers standpoint. Some of the things the members complain about may be there and then you can be the judge. Many little things can be rectified in a short time and you could become a hero in the eyes of the complainers. We all recognize the fact that all the golfers cannot and will not be satisfied but we must keep trying.

A board meeting is scheduled for the end of August. Many things will be discussed and hopefully we will be able