Volume 5 - Number 12

AN OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE WISCONSIN GOLF COURSE SUPERINTENDENT ASSOCIATION

President's Message

We had a good turn out at Tripoli Country Club with 60 reservations. It worked out very well with advance payments.

The advance payments were necessary due to the great discrepancy in the number of cards returned for the West Bend Country Club meeting and the actual number of people at the meeting.

Seventy cards were returned for the West Bend meeting but only 43 showed up. This makes it very difficult for the clubs to prepare for our group. If this was to continue we would find it very difficult to find clubs willing to host the WGCSA.

We also have a dress code and a few of our members do not abide by it. Many clubs require their members to wear a suit or at least a sports coat in the dining room. We should show our professionalism by doing the same.

We have been very fortunate that the hosts we have had do not require us to pay for the no-shows.

Let's make our meetings something we can be proud of by making our reservations and keeping them.
