OFFICIAL BULLETIN

November, 1958

NOTICE: November Meeting

PLACE: American Legion Club Rooms, St. Paul

TIME: 2:00 P.M., Tuesday, November 18. Dinner at 6:30

HOST: R. L. Gould & Co. (Paul and Gordy Miller)

LOCATION: Legion Club Rooms are at corner of 6th 8 7th St.

FIRE

The Riviera Supper Club, formerly the old Minnetonka Country Club, burned to the ground Monday, October 20. Alden F. (Rusty) Smith, co-owner of the structure, estimated the damage at $250,000. No one was injured.

Wind was blowing in the opposite direction from the golf house, which saved the building. The 18-hole course escaped traffec tramping, but the practice tee was somewhat cut up by the fire engines.

The building was under lease by the Minnetonka Country Club to the Riviera Supper Club.

QUEEN

Sally Stodola was crowned homecoming queen at Beloit College, Beloit, Wisconsin, last month. She is a junior and a straight-A student, and she was chosen queen from a field of six glamorous candidates.

The Harold Stodalas, Sally's parents, have just moved into their new home in Phoenix, Arizona.

Harold Stodola...a former Minnesota resident, past president of the National Association, present life member of our local Association...is now employed at Paradise Country Club in Phoenix.

PARTY

The November meeting is one of the most looked-forward-to events of the year. This is the annual Gould Party, sponsored by Paul and Gordy Miller and associates of R. L. Gould & Company.

The Association hereby wishes to express its appreciation for this invitation.

VISITORS

During the month of October, our area was paid a visit by Stanley Graves and family. Stan Graves, formerly of St. Paul, is with the Westwood Country Club, Cleveland, Ohio.

Also, Donald Strand, Westmoreland Country Club, Wilmette, Illinois, visited several of our members during the month of October.

DECEASED

M. P. Schiefner, former superintendent in the St. Paul area and Life member of this Association, passed away this October. This Association wishes to express its sympathy to his survivors.

FOR SALE

Hank Toupal, New Ulm Country Club, has two mower grinders for sale--one large. one small. Drop Hank a postal card for further information.
