OFFICIAL BULLETIN

January, 1959

NOTICE: January Meeting

PLACE: Town & Country Club, St. Paul
TIME: 3:00 P.M., Monday, January 12. Dinner at 6:00 P.M.
HOST: Idon Haugen
LOCATION: Marshall Avenue -- just east of Mississippi River

M E E T I N G

The main topic of discussion will concern transportation to Chicago for the National Turf Conference. Train and Plane rates and time schedules will be presented.

The Executive Board will meet at 3:00. A card game or two should also be in order before dinner.

A N N U A L D U E S

A bill for your annual dues is enclosed in this envelope. Checks should be made payable to "The Minnesota Golf Course Supt's Assn."

You are also reminded that the Fiscal Year is from January 1 to January 1. This action was taken at the annual meeting on March 9, 1955; whereas prior to that time, it had been from March to March. You are, therefore, urged to pay your dues as promptly as possible rather than wait until the annual conference as was formerly the custom.

JUST NOTES

Remember that members will show slides of movies Wednesday night -- the first night of our Turf Conference. You are limited to about 10 slides. If you have any pictures you feel would be of interest. PLEASE BRING THEM.

Roy Nelson was visiting here over the holidays and said he hopes to come to our conference with a small group from the Chicago Area.

If you are planning to stay at the Lowry Hotel during our conference, please state in your reservation request that you are attending the turf conference.

Both O. J. Noer and Dr. Burton Musser will be retiring this year. We wish to prematurely congratulate them and express our sincere thanks for the services they have performed in their many years of work in the turf field.

A NEW YEARS EDITORIAL

(From The Farm Journal)

"With every plant and every animal on his land, with the rain and the sun and the wind, a farmer deals with irresistible, immutable laws of all-powerful Nature. The penalty for disobedience is failure. The reward for obedience is success. The judgments in the court of nature are infallible. They are inexorable. In this court, no fines are remitted, no sentences are paroled, no pardons are issued." -- And that applies to us.

BUSINESS MOVE

Minnesota Toro, Inc., with present offices at 2538 Hennepin, will soon move headquarters to Golden Valley.

Future address of the distributor for Toro Mfg. products will be 850 North Florida Avenue--near Highway 12.

Milt Wiley, vice president and general sales manager of the wholesale business, said the move to the new location should be completed by March 1, 1959.

FROM FLORIDA--

A letter from Clarence Reynolds to let us know he is temporarily located at the Fort Lauderdale Country Club in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, but hopes to get a position back in the upper Midwest.

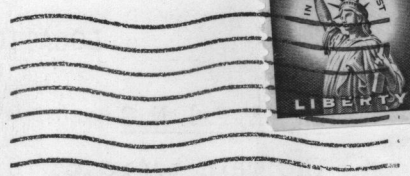

...and Hints for a Happier New Year

Try a good laugh each day.
Substitute action for worry.
Join the National.
And attend their Turf Conference and ours.

Play more golf.
Ask your club for a raise.
