RAIN CLEARS AT STILLWATER

WHICH WAY IS UP? Directional signs at Stillwater Country Club pointed the way to tees, but eyes were on the skies to see if rain would return.

FORE! John Nylund shows good form on the first tee. The question remains whether it was a whiff or a practice swing.

ON THE FRONT LINE. Tim Commers and the rest of the Cushman staff had plenty of equipment to show off.

ON HOLD. Mike Olson (center) from Golden Valley Country Club waits to hear about the new Cushman Core Harvester.
