

MINNESOTA SUPERINTENDENT RECEIVES GCSAA CERTIFICATION

Douglas F. Veillette, superintendent of Little Falls Country Club, has been designated a Certified Golf Course Superintendent (CGCS) by the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America (GCSAA).

Veillette has been superintendent of the Little Falls, Minnesota course since 1982. He lives at 1119 Riverview in Little Falls.

To become certified, a candidate must have five years' experience as a golf course superintendent and be employed in that capacity. The candidate must pass a rigorous six-hour examination covering the rules of golf, turfgrass management, pest management, financial and organizational management and the history, ethics, purpose and procedures of GCSAA. Also, an on-site inspection of Veillette's golf course operation was conducted by two currently certified superintendents: Kerry Glader, CGCS, of St. Cloud, Minn., and James Nicol, CGCS, of Coon Rapids, Minn.

GCSAA, an 8,800-member international professional and educational association, instituted the certification program in 1971 to recognize outstanding and progressive superintendents. More than 1,000 GCSAA members currently hold "CGCS" status.
