

Seminar, Pesticide Session Draw Well

For four days in March, the Northland Inn in Brooklyn Park had quite a gathering of golf course superintendents.

On March 18-19 the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America conducted an informative two-day program. On March 20, the Minnesota association followed up with its mini-seminar, then played host at a Pesticide Applicator Training Session on March 21.

One hundred eighty-two superintendents attended the MGCSA seminar; 274 were on hand for the pesticide session.

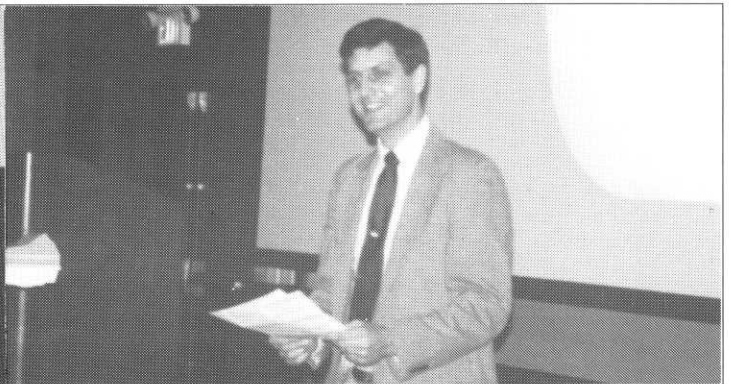

ALWAYS SMILING is Mary Burg, Brighton Woods GC, New Brighton.

VISITING with Steve Young, Precision Turf, right, are Tom Kientzle, left, Grand View Lodge, Nisswa, and Brad Klein, Detroit CC, Detroit Lakes.

ANOKA COUNTY AGRICULTURALIST Harvey Buchite, right, with George Gibbons, Jackson, GC.

CRAIG SALLSTROM, executive director of the Minnesota Plant Foods & Chemicals Association, discusses employee rights.

ADDRESSING the seminar about the future of Waseca Technical College is Irwin (Boots) Fuller, Mankato GC.

AT THE REGISTRATION TABLE are Kevin Clunis, left, Stillwater CC, and Scott Turtinen, the MGCSA's assistant executive director.