FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

Stodola Scramble Attracted 172 Competitors

The Harold Stodola Research Scramble held at Rolling Green and Wayzata Country Club was well attended with 172 playing in the event. Our thanks to the respective clubs for the use of their facilities and our appreciation to Pat Walton and Jim Lindblad, CGCS, and their staffs for preparing the courses. Greg Hubbard, Research Chairman, and Bill Whitworth, Arrangements Chairman, did an excellent job of organizing this annual event. A large part of the association's research funds comes from the Stodola Scramble. The site for the 1993 Scramble has yet to be determined. Contact Bill if your club could be a host.

The Scholarship Committee announced the recipients of this year's Harold Stodola Scholarships. Lee Horning, a student at Penn State; William Gullicks from Anoka Technical College, and Jeffrey Johnson from the University of Minnesota received scholarships. Also new this year is the Garske Scholarship, given to a deserving student in memory of Joe Garske. Awarded the Garske Scholarship was Mark Simeon from the University of Minnesota. The scholarships represent our association's commitment to the future and to education.

The Scholarship Committee, chaired by Mike Olson, is studying the option of setting up a trust fund for scholarships. The fund would eventually be self-sustaining in itself, similar to the Research Trust Fund.

Shane Andrews, Conference Chairman, has secured the speakers and the dates for this year's Annual Conference. The conference is November 18, 19 and 20. A few noticeable changes have been made from last year's program. The Annual Meeting will be held at noon on Wednesday immediately following lunch. The trade show on Thursday will begin at 10 a.m. and last until 5 p.m., after which the associates will be sponsoring a social affair for all members.

Mark Poppitz, Superintendent at Island View Country Club, hosts our final golf outing for 1992 on October 12.
