GCSAA Seminar Set March 10-11 In St. Louis Park

On Tuesday and Wednesday, March 10-11, the two days immediately following the MGCSA Mini-Seminar, the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America and the MGCSA will host a seminar on "Managing People for Peak Performance and Job Satisfaction."

This two-day seminar will also be held at the Doubletree Park Place Hotel in St. Louis Park, Minn., is based on the GCSAA book Human Resource Management for Golf Course Superintendents and will be presented by Thomas Maloney and Dr. Robert Milligan of Cornell University. The material in this seminar will prepare participants to take section six of the GCSAA certification exam.

Scott Austin, CGCS, James Gardner, CGCS and Mike Klatte, CGCS, are all smiles after participating in the GCSAA Golf Championship. Twelve MGCSA members played. The other nine were: Michael Brower; Tom Feriancek; Scott Hoffman; Tim Johnson; Tom Kientzle; John Malloy; Jonathan Pulju; David Simeon, and Scott Weltzin.

Brad Zimmerman, Edina CC, chats with Todd Foley of North-ern Irrigation.
