

At Park Place Doubletree Hotel in St. Louis Park

"The Magic of Greenskeeping" Is Theme For MGCSA Mini-Seminar on March 8

By MICHAEL BROWER

Hillcrest Country Club

The Minnesota Golf Course Superintendents Association proudly presents "The Magic of Greenskeeping," an exciting educational experience presented by two of the most sought after Superintendents in the world, Michael Bavier, CGCS at Inverness Golf Club near Chicago, and Gordon Witteveen, CGCS at Board of Trade Golf Club. Join them as they share their love of the profession, their knowledge based on years of experience and widespread travels, and most of all, their unique insight on the art of our profession.

This is an educational opportunity for all golf course professionals, Superintendents, Assistants, Technicians, Golf Professionals and General Managers.

Mr. Bavier and Mr. Witteveen will have available their recently published book, Practical Golf Course Maintenance, The Magic of Greenskeeping.

Refresh your enthusiasm and learn the latest tools of the trade for the fast-approaching 1999 golf season. GCSAA approved CEU's.

ACCEPTING THE $5,000 PLATINUM TEE GIFT FROM THE MGCSA is Ray Anderson, right, chairman of the Board of GCSAA Trustees. MGCSA president Thomas Fischer, CGCS, middle, presented the check at the National Conference in Orlando in February. Standing at the left is David W. Fearis, CGCS, the newly-elected president of the GCSAA.

PERIODICAL
Please Deliver Promptly

