

ON SEPTEMBER 12 IN BRAINERD

The Pines Team Wins '99 Stodola At The Legacy Courses at Cragun's

Lee Horning, head superintendent at The Pines at Grand View Lodge, Eric Peterson, Bill Moseley and Rick Martin, carded 10 birdies and two eagles en route to a 14-under-par 58 to win the 1999 Stodola Scramble at The Legacy Courses at Cragun's in Brainerd on September 12.

Tom Keintzle, superintendent at Cragun's, supplied MGCSA members with some long carries and a tough layout.

The MGCSA would like to thank Heather Hasselberg for helping organize a wonderful time at this new course in Brainerd.

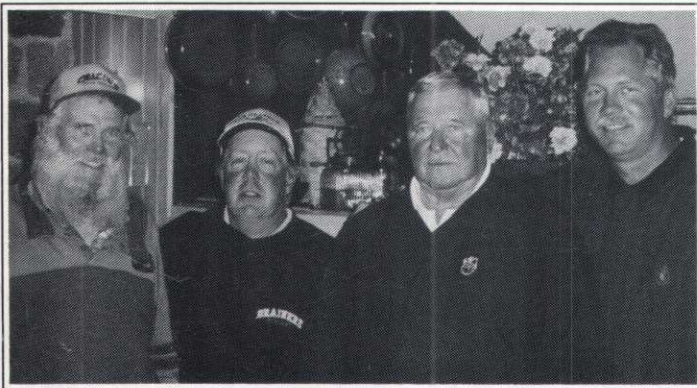

1999 Stodola Champions

Eric Petersen, Lee Horning and Bill Moseley. Not pictured was Rick Martin, the fourth member of their group.

The team from the Brainerd area made up of Tom Kientzle Sr., John Beyer, Paul Jones and Dick Williams won the net division with a score of 53.4.

John Powell, University of Minnesota, gave an update on the University and the new Turf Specialist position coming to the University.

(See Results on Page 32)

1999 STODOLA NET DIVISION CHAMPIONS

Tom Kientzle Sr., Dick Williams, John Beyer and Paul Jones.

PERIODICAL
Please Deliver Promptly