Larry Thornton, Superior Turf Services, captured the Callaway flight with a net 73.

This year's Senior Champion is John Monson, Long Prairie Golf Club, who shot a net 70. Finishing in second place was the

On a great Minnesota fall day, Dennis Perreault, Assistant Superintendent at Pheasant Acres Golf Club, shot a four-over par 76 at Midland Hills Country Club to win the 30th MGCSA Championship on September 26. Denny carded a pair of 38s making five bogeys and one birdie during his round.

One-shot back at 77 was Barry Provo, Deer Run Golf Club, to finish second. Wayde West, Hoyt Lakes Golf Club, Bill MacDonald, E-Z-Go Golf Cars, and Steve Busch, Blue Valley Sod, tied for third while shooting 78.

Midland Hills host Superintendent Ben Just had the course in tournament shape. The greens were rolling true and fast. The warm sunshine made a great day to play golf.

The staff at Midland Hills was very responsive and supplied first-class accommodations. The MGCSA expresses thanks son.

Charlie Miller, The Ponds at Battle Creek, won First flight honors by netting a four-under-par 68 after firing an 82. Miller won by one-shot over Erik Pille, The Meadows at Mystic Lake, and two shots over Geoff Jordan, The Meadows at Mystic Lake.

Leif Erickson, MTI Distributing Inc., sends a chip shot towards the 18th pin at the 30th MGCSA Championship at Midland Hills Country Club.

Edina Country Club's Brandon Schindele

threesome of Walt Braunig, Thompson Oaks Golf Course, Jim O'Neill and Doug Daniel, both of Cycle Works of Minnesota. All three shot net 77s.
