Charlie came running up just in time to join his companions on the first tee. “Good to see you, Charlie,” said one friend. “But since it’s Sunday morning, we didn’t think you’d be here.”

For 18 holes, Thompson’s caddy ha been cackling and snickering after every shot that the golfer took. Fed up with the not-so-subtle criticism, Thompson finally threw the putter at the caddy and snapped, “you must be the worst caddy in the world.”

“Sure I do,” said Sid. “It was the day I sank that 50-foot putt.”

The 16th tee featured a fairway that ran along a road. The first golfer in a foursome teed off and hooked the ball. It soared over the fence and bounced onto the street, where it hit the tire of a moving bus and ricocheted back onto the fairway. As they all stood in amazement, one of the golfer's friends asked, "How did you do that?"

The golfer shrugged. "You have to know the bus schedule."
