

What a National We Had!

Look for pictures throughout this issue from the GCSAA national convention held in Las Vegas in early February. More than 200 members and spouses attended the many seminars, events and trade show. The weather was great while we were there with temperatures in the 60s and even low 70s one day. It was just really nice to get away from the ice, wind, snow and cold. But now it's time to get back in gear and ready ourselves for spring. I hope you are planning on attending the March mini-seminar. All indications are that this will be a very informative day, please look at the schedule and plan on attending if your not already signed up.
