

AT THE NEW CHASKA TOWN COURSE

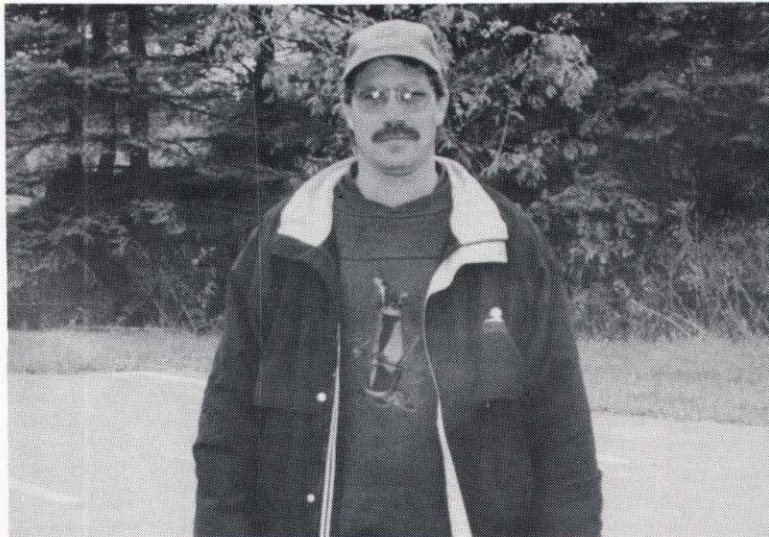

Erickson, Meier, Schultz and Grundstrom Capture Final MGCSA Mixer for 1998

The team of Dick Grundstrom and Charlie Schultz, Indian Hills Golf Club; Tom Meier, Worthington Country Club, and Leif Erickson, Scotts Company, won the final MGCSA Mixer of the year at the Chaska Town Course on October 5.

Their score of 13 under par was good enough to win a scorecard playoff. The second place team consisted of Mark Goettig, Minnesota Golf Cars; Jon Almquist, MTI Distributing Co.; Bob Atol, Braemar Golf Course; Kurt Knox, Hillcrest Country Club, and Randy Adelman, Rich Acres Golf Course.

Third place honors went to Walt Braunig, Thompson Oaks Golf Course; Jerry Webb, Prestwick Golf Course; Rod Anderson, Continental Golf, and Barry Waters, Prestwick Golf Course. They fired 11 under par.

One hundred one players signed up for the event at the

Mark Moers
Host Superintendent at Chaska Town Course

Chaska Town Course. Threatening skies chased about 20 players from their round of golf. It did sprinkle a bit but never got too bad.

Mark Moers, Superintendent at Chaska Town Course, gave us a very enjoyable track to play on. Thanks to the staff at CTC for the clubhouse arrangements and for donating four 18-hole golf passes.

Jon Powell, the new Turf Pathologist at the University of Minnesota, gave a talk about his plans at the University and for some research projects. He welcomed questions from the audience and ideas any superintendents had on research studies. Jon can be reached at (612) 625-5290.

The winners of the six field events were Dave Small, Jerry McCann, Mike Knodel and Kurt Knox, closest to the pins; Jeff McDowell, longest putt, and Tom Dargay, longest drive.