

WON BY FOUR SHOTS AT ALBION RIDGES ON OCTOBER 11

Haroldson, Lanager, Peterson & Cohrs Capture Final MGCSA Mixer for 1999

The team of Jim Haroldson, Tee Shot Marketing; Seth Lanager, Woodhill Country Club; Brian Peterson, Southbrook Golf & Country Club, and Mike Cohrs, Bluff Creek Golf Course, won the final MGCSA Mixer of the year (of the century for that matter) at Albion Ridges Golf Club in Annandale on October 11.

Their score of 18 under par bested the field by four shots. The second place team consisted of Cary Femrite, Turf Partners; Mike Redmond, Scotts; Jon Almquist, MTI Distributing Company, and Charles Schultz, Indian Hills Golf Club. They won a scorecard playoff against a team of Randy Adlesman, Rich Acres Golf Course; Troy Carson, University of Minnesota; Kerry Baribeau, Daytona Country Club, and Ron Bloom, Fairways, Inc. Both teams were 14-under par.

Brooks Ellingson, host superintendent, had low gross honors with a 74. Jim Johnson, Rich Spring Golf Course fired a 76.

Ellingson, Leroy Wurm and their staff had the course in great shape. Special thanks to the clubhouse staff for the wonderful arrangements.

The Winners of the Albion Ridge Mixer
Brian Peterson, Seth Lanager, Jim Haroldson and Mike Cohrs.

Mark Grundman, Medalist America, gave an informative talk on creeping bluegrass.

Dan Hinton, Jackson Golf Club and Tim Jansma, Gem Lake Hills Golf Club won the two closest to the pin competitions and Justin Rother, Woodhill Country Club won the Long Drive.

PERIODICAL
Please Deliver Promptly