ALWAYS ON THE CUTTING EDGE OF TURF MANAGEMENT TECHNOLOGY

Ruhoff, Meyer, Deyak and Ramler Win
2003 Scholarship Scramble at New Richmond

Gorgeous weather greeted the MGCSA Members at New Richmond Golf Club, host club of this years Scholarship Scramble. Tom Johnson, host superintendent had the entire course in great shape, even the cart paths were edged for a nice clean look.

Thanks go out to Gary Johnson, host professional and his staff for tending to all the details. Gary took team photographs of all the teams and New Richmond Golf Club gave each player a team photo. The clubhouse staff provided two superb meals.

The winning team was made up of Tom Ramler, Boulder Ridge Golf Club; Jason Ruhoff and Jeff Meyer of Koronis Hills Golf Club, and Brad Deyak, of Wapicada Golf Club. Their scramble score of 54 was good for a two shot victory over the team from Stillwater Country Club. Stillwater's team was made up of Marlin Murphy, Justin Funk, Adam Larson and Todd Samarzia. Winning a scorecard playoff for third place was the Wayzata Country Club team of Bob Distel, Steve Roxberg, Bill Irving and Scott Turtinen. They shot a 58.

The six field event winners were: closest to the pins; Mike Anderson, MTI Distributing, Mickey Saatzer, Albany Golf Club, Marlow Hansen, Forest Hills Golf Club and Bill Irving, Wayzata Country Club. Matt Rostal, Interlachen

WINNERS OF THIS YEAR'S SCHOLARSHIP SCRAMBLE were, from the left, Tom Ramler, Boulder Ridge; Jason Ruhoff, Koronis Hills, Jeff Meyer, Koronis Hills, and Brad Deyak, Wapicada.

Country Club, drained the longest putt. Jeremy Walker, Forest Hills Golf Club, hit the longest drive of the day.

This years event raised over $4,000 for The MGCSA Scholarship Program.

Next up on the calendar is the University of Minnesota Field Days which will take place on July 24, 2003.

The next MGCSA meeting will be the Golf Championship at The Legacy Courses at Cragun's on August 18.