BACK FROM THE ARMY

Whether you know it or not if you've had a boy working for you who was drafted and he is now or soon will be out of the service, he is eligible to come back to work for you with seniority, pay raises, hospitalization, sick leave and all other benefits he would have if he had never left. The U.S. Department of Labor is who to contact if you have questions

SURVEY

The employment questionnaire should now be in the hands of all A and B members. If you don't have a copy, call any of the fellows on the back of the newsletter and if you do have a copy, please please send it back. As we stated last month, all information will be kept confidential from the individual forms. The final talley will be published of course, but nothing else will. All we are interested in is having all the blanks filled in and the forms returned as soon as possible. By cooperating in this survey, you are helping yourself, your club, and everyone else in the association.

This is good to a point, that supers are bettering themselves by changing jobs, but it is leaving some clubs high and dry at a critical time of the year with no one to handle the job of superintending. Naturally, the club officials feel a terrific pang of anxiety and fear in the pit of their tum tums and wonder "Now what are we gonna' do? Where will we get a superintendent at this time of year?"

Well their point is well taken. Where do they turn? The answer in some cases is really scary. They ask men who own construction companies, hardware stores, truck drivers, golf pros equipment salesmen, irrigation installers, and many other people who many times aren't even remotely connected with the profession. They ask everyone but the right people, the golf course superintendents!!! If you go shopping for a new car, you sure don't go looking for one at a bakery. Finding out clubs are asking the wrong people for help is not a new discovery, that's for sure. Maybe this will shed some light on some troubled officials at this time of transition at their clubs

If the club is a member of the National (most clubs are), this is the "world wide" placement service in our profession. The national dues entitle both the club
