Correction

Back in our March Newsletter, we displayed a cartoon titled "Ferti-mow" conceived by Dr. A. J. Powell of V.P.I. I erroneously gave credit for this cartoon to an unknown member of Bethesda Country Club. Dr. Powell had the cartoon drawn through one of his staff for use at the Virginia Turfgrass Council Conference held this past winter. A mistake had been made, through casual conversation, that Dr. Powell was not the originator of this very original cartoon. My sincerest apologies go to Dr. Powell for this misrepresentation.
