The Occupational Safety and Health Administration has revised its' rules permitting a worker access to the employers' log of job-related injuries and illnesses. Under the law all employers with eleven or more employees are mandated to keep such records.

The Mandatory Retirement Age has been raised to 70 for most workers. The new law applies to all private employers with 20 or more workers. Federal employees have been exempted from mandatory retirement at any age.

According to Dr. Elizabeth M. Whelan, Executive Director of The New American Council on Science and Health, they, the council, will fight Cancerphobia and Chemical-phobia. She said the council would "provide the scientific information needed by the new breed of
