

GCSAA News

Palmer Maples and Dick Hale have been fired from their jobs at the GCSAA headquarters. No reasons for the firing are known as yet.

Future GCSAA Convention Sites:

- 1982 New Orleans
- 1983 Atlanta
- 1984 Las Vegas
- 1985 San Francisco

The keynote speaker for the New Orleans convention will be Jim McKay of ABC Sports.

GCSAA is in the process of getting each state to accept the GCSAA Disease and Insect Seminars as credit toward Certified Pesticide License renewal.

GCSAA will accept CPR (Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation) training as one (1) point credit toward certification renewal. A copy of the CPR card will be accepted as evidence of training.

Did You Know . . . ?

Golf is called golf because it comes from the Dutch word Kolf, meaning Club.

1981 Mid-Atlantic PGA Annual

The Mid-Atlantic PGA Annual has recently come off the presses and is in all Pro shops. Two of the Mid-Atlantic Superintendents finest have articles printed in this issue. President Mike has written an article on cooperation being the success to golf course operation and Lee Dieter has written an article about the history of Washington Golf and Country Club.

Other Mid-Atlantic Superintendents mentioned in the Annual: Leslie Hawkins, Ron Barley and George Renault.

The Mid-Atlantic A.G.C.S. has taken a quarter page ad, which lists all Mid-Atlantic officers.
