

GOLF NOTES

Congratulations to Dean Graves, 1991 annual champion, who shot an even par 72 to win the Bill Glover Award. Gordon Caldwell won the O.B. Fitts award for low net with an impressive score of 69.

A hearty thank-you to Bernie Beaven and his staff for a fantastic golf course. A special thanks to Bob Arnold and the pro shop staff for making our day a great success.

Our November meeting at Wakefield Valley will feature golf with a 12 noon shotgun start. Our tournament this month will be a scramble event. If you are going to play, please call me at 598-1580 before Saturday, November 8. This will allow me time to put the teams together before our event on the 12th. When calling please leave your name and handicap. Don't forget to call, and we will see you at Wakefield Valley.

Bruce Marcus to address November meeting

The speaker for the November MAAGCS meeting will be Bruce L. Marcus, an attorney practicing in Prince George's County. Mr. Marcus will discuss contracts and employment.

A partner in the firm of Marcus & Bonsib, whose offices are in Greenbelt, Mr. Marcus has been practicing law since 1980. He serves as Special Counsel for the Prince George's County Government and was Senior Trial Counsel, Felony Division, in the Office of the Public Defender of Prince George's County.

A graduate of Columbus School of Law of the Catholic University, Mr. Marcus has taught and lectured extensively. He has been a member of the faculty of Prince George's Community College and has been active in continuing legal education programs. He is co-author of "Eyewitness Identification," for the Maryland Institute for Continuing Professional Education for Lawyers, and of the Annual Criminal Trial Practice Manual since 1986.

Because he is an experienced lecturer and educator, and because his topic is so timely, this promises to be an important evening.
