President's Message

The MAAGCS lost one of our long respected members when Angelo Cammarota passed away on September 16, 1995. Those of us who have been around for a few years know that Angelo always had the best interest of our profession at heart. You might not have always agreed with "Angie", but you knew he wanted the best for all. Our thoughts and prayers are with Angelo's wife and children. Mike Larsen and Bob Miller have shared some thoughts about Angelo in this Newsletter and they are worth reading.

The Management of the MAAGCS is coming back into focus. After a disappointing association with the Tharp Group, we are getting back on track. We need some help from people who have wanted to advertise in our newsletter or directory. Our records aren't clear on what's what. If you paid for ads or want to place an ad, please contact Chris Ayers at (301) 762-0570 to make arrangements. Thanks in advance for your help.

The summer of 1995 was a year of struggle for many in the Mid-Atlantic and Northeast. The drought and grey leaf spot were beyond belief, but hopefully October will provide some relief. Come out on October 12th for the Annual Championship at Rolling Road and enjoy a fine day to get away and relax.

Best Wishes,

Scott
