Members,

We are in the process of changing our look. You have seen it in our logo and emails. We are now doing so in this newsletter. We are trying a few new things, paper choice, adding color and of course striving to improve content and interest. Take the time to evaluate and provide feedback on your first impressions. Any comments positive or negative are welcome. You may send comments to me at bpost@corscreekgolfclub.net or to Theresa Baria at maags@earthlink.net.

Thank you,
