The Colorado Chapter: STMA will hold a Spring Seminar & Workshop from 8:30 A.M to 4:00 P.M. on March 30th at Olympic Park, Aurora, CO. A panel discussion will address the key topic - "Scheduling of Your Field Use - How To Do It and Still Keep Your Grass Alive." Bring your programmer or scheduler to this meeting. It's the perfect opportunity to discuss field use. The program will include a tour of the field and field maintenance demonstrations. Contact: Ross Kurcab, Denver Broncos, at (303) 649-9000.

The Southern California Chapter: STMA will hold a Turf & Landscape Seminar from 8:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. on April 27th at Sea World. Multiple demonstrations will cover such topics as: big roll sod, pruning, bedding plants, aeration, and mowing comparisons. Following the afternoon sessions, attendees will be given a behind the scenes tour of the facility and are invited to stay and enjoy Sea World. For information on the Seminar, contact Sea World personnel: Mark Peacock, at (619) 226-3900 ext. 2209; or Jeff Hall, at (619) 226-3900 ext. 2207. For info. on the S. California Chapter contact: Chris Bunnell at (619) 432-2421.

The Midwest Chapter: STMA is planning a Layout and Lining Fields Seminar for May 8th in Elk Grove Village. More details will be announced soon. For information on the Seminar, the Chapter, or other upcoming activities call: The Chapter Hotline (708) 439-4727.

William H. Daniel

William Hugh Daniel, 75, professor emeritus at Purdue University, died Feb. 25, 1995, at St. Elizabeth Hospital Medical Center, W. Lafayette, IN. Dr. Daniel retired from the Department of Agronomy at Purdue in 1985, where he had been on staff for 35 years. He pioneered turfgrass research and educational methods, and was the developer of the PURR-Wick Water Management System and Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT).

Dr. Daniel, recognized as one of the "fathers" of STMA, also was senior author of The Turf Managers' Handbook, and author of numerous articles in technical and popular journals.

He is survived by his wife, Gwen, two children, two brothers, one sister, and four grandchildren.
