The Main Course

Rossmoor Golf Course — Scholarship Tournament — September 18

The Course

Rossmoor is a planned adult community that was first opened in 1964. Presently there is a population of approximately 8,500 residents, whose average age is 75.5 years. The community has its own medical clinic and security force.

The maintenance and management of the Rossmoor community are administered by the Gold Rain Foundation.

Nine holes, designed by Robert Muir Graves, were added to the original 18 holes in 1975. The new nine was worked into what is now the South Course. The North Course is the original front nine. Both courses are private. The par 72 South Course is rated at 67.6 from the white tees with a slope rating of 115. The course measures 5,798 yards in length. There are cart paths from tee to green and carts are restricted to the paths. (Editor's note: Plan on walking the course because there are only 10 carts available for those truly in need.) The courses average 98,000 rounds of golf per year.
