

SFMANJ HAS A NEW EXECUTIVE SECRETARY!

By: Craig A. Tolley

In the last issue of SFMANJ Update I had to announce the departure of our executive secretary. Since that time, the board created a search charged with filling the position. I would like to announce that we have completed that task, and welcome to our association Mrs. Debra Savard. Debra has been appointed to fill the position of executive secretary for the SFMANJ. Our search committee (consisting of Brad Park, Jeff Cramer, and myself) interviewed several candidates and unanimously agreed on Debbie.

Debbie comes to us with a broad range of experience in office management, bookkeeping, and customer service. She also has an extensive background in graphic design and printing. The search committee felt that Debbie's unique experience and skills would greatly benefit our association. She presented herself as very positive, energetic, and motivated individual.

After reviewing all the candidates the search committee felt that Debbie would be the best fit for SFMANJ. Please join the board in welcoming Debbie to our association. As part of our transition to the new executive secretary we have changed the SFMANJ mailing address and phone number.
