Midwestern Shade Tree Conference Meets Feb. 2-4

Problems pertaining to selection of species, planting, and maintenance of shade trees, and ornamental shrubs will be discussed in formal papers when the Midwestern Chapter, International Shade Tree Conference meets in Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 2-4. Place selected to accommodate this 21st annual event is the Muehlebach Hotel.

Following the presentation of each paper a question and answer period will be held.

The three-day meeting, open to all who are interested in the care of trees and shrubs, is expected to attract from 300 to 350 persons. Tools, supplies and materials used in arboricultural work will be on display.

The program includes work shop sessions with such subjects as tree taxonomy, anatomy, physiology and root diseases. Discussions will also center around year-round care of shade trees, shade trees in landscape architecture, use of fertilizer, shade tree selection and many more subjects of moment.

Information pertaining to this event may be obtained by writing to Noel B. Wysong, Secretary, Midwestern Chapter, International Shade Tree Conference, 536 N. Harlem Ave., River Forest, Ill.

Suppliers Personnel Changes

Morton Chemical Co., Chicago, reports that Benjamin J. Scaralia has been appointed northeastern regional manager of the Agricultural Products Division, of Morton International, Inc. In making the announcement Dr. R. P. Seven, general manager of agricultural products said Scaralia will be responsible for sales of all agricultural specialties. In another statement Morton says it has acquired the services of Ed Aharonian, Jr., who assumes duties as sales representative for agricultural products in New York and the New England States.
