sponsibility to support, nurture and help make these groups grow and thrive. Ignorance of meeting dates, dissatisfaction with the governing group, inordinate distance to travel, hotel accommodations, and other reasons are but lame excuses which satisfy only the people who make them.

Any well-known national organization today didn't gain its prominence by member laziness and platonic attitude. It's people in attendance; people in action for a united effort; people who desire to make the organization meaningful, and people who have the fortitude to stand up and be represented. That's what Green Industry associations need. And it's about time we started recognizing the fact that without people, associations will fold. What have you done for your association this year?
