

Pesticide Shortages Studied By Industry

H. L. Straube, vice president of Stauffer Chemical Company has been named to head an industry committee to determine the seriousness of the shortages of pesticide chemicals and to help alleviate the most critical situations.

Under Straube's direction, the group will endeavor to determine the critical shortages of feedstocks, intermediate chemicals, and other materials needed to manufacture pesticides. The committee will work to alleviate such shortages to avert, if possible, a reduction of food supplies which could result from current shortages.
