

Co-winner announced in Irrigation award

The Irrigation Association awarded the National Water and Energy Conservation Award to the Denver, Colorado Water Department and the Associated Landscape Contractors of Colorado. The award, presented annually, recognizes the two groups' efforts to promote water conservation through creative landscaping in an urban environment through their "Xeriscape" program. Sheldon G. Pooley, president of the Irrrometer Company, Inc. of Riverside, CA was the recipient of an Honorable Mention.

ASLA test booklet available

An updated, comprehensive manual on how to prepare for, how to take and how to do well on the Uniform National Exam (UNE) for Landscape Architects has been published by the American Society of Landscape Architects (ASLA). In order to be licensed to practice in many states, landscape architects must successfully complete the UNE. The examination is prepared annually by the Council of Landscape Architectural Registration Boards (CLARB) in Syracuse, NY.

The Uniform National Exam Study Guide for Landscape Architects is aimed at maximizing a candidate's study time and performance on the exam. The guide provides a methodology which allows the candidate to understand what he or she needs to know in order to be adequately prepared for the exam. The guide was written by professors of Landscape Architecture at the University of Florida and Ohio State University.

The study guide is available to ASLA members for $12 per copy and to non-ASLA members for $17 per copy (plus $2 per copy UPS postage and handling). The ASLA is located at 1733 Connecticut Ave. NW, Washington, D.C. 20009.

NLA honors landscape designs

Thirteen Superior Design Awards, including a special Judges Award and seven Certificates of Merit were presented to landscape firms during the National Landscape Association Awards Luncheon recently. Eight projects were selected in the Single Family Residence category: Ireland's Landscaping, Inc., New York; Theodore Brickman Co., Illinois; and Soter Companies, Inc., Oregon. Fininvest Landscape Inc. won the Judges Award. Six entries received superior ratings in the Active Use category: Schlick Landscaping Inc., New York; Landscape Innovations Inc., New York; Steven Dubner Landscaping, Inc., New York; Goldberg & Rodler, New York; and Contemporary Landscapes Inc., New Jersey. Three won in the Passive Use category: Synnestvedt Landscape Co., Illinois; and Ireland's Landscaping, Inc. Kale's Nursery & Landscape Service, New Jersey, was awarded a Certificate of Merit.

called the father of American golf course architecture.

"Al Radko has long worked with golf course architects to provide American golf courses with the best turfgrass in the entire world," said ASGCA President Jack Snyder. "He is an industry leader of national prominence, a dedicated educator and a professional with great personal character."

Snyder said Radko's work as primary editor for the new USGA book,

Turf Management for Golf Courses, helped provide information and guidelines that will prove useful to all those interested in good golf courses for many years.

Previous recipients of the Donald Ross Award include Robert Trent Jones, Herbert Warren Wind, Herb and Joe Graffis, Joe Dey, Gerald Micklem, Gov. James A. Rhodes of Ohio and Geoffrey Cornish.

HERBICIDES

Label additions expand Princep versatility

Princep herbicide from Ciba-Geigy, long used for broadleaf control in corn, citrus, deciduous fruits, nuts, turfgrass, tree plantings and alfalfa, will offer growers more versatility in 1983 with label additions and new tank mixes accepted by the EPA.

Princep herbicide now may be used alone to control winter annual weeds in fairways and lawns of bermudagrass, centipedegrass, St. Augustinegrass and Zoysia grass. Weeds controlled include annual bluegrass, burclover, carpet burweed, chickweed, corn, speedwell, henbit, hop

Continued on page 18