FEATURES

12 LM Reports: Landscape lighting

Good landscape lighting is as much an art as it is a science. There are few hard and fast rules, but there are certain fundamentals that will make the job easier, minimize callbacks and satisfy customers.

Murray Murrow

15 Hazardous buried utilities

Installers/excavators are just 'one call' away from learning the whereabouts of below-ground utilities.

Ron Hall

16 Turfseed harvest

The message is to purchase seed while you can. Talk of boosting prices 'won't scare people,' says Pickseed West's Dr. Jerry Pepin.

Terry McIver

18 Native plants on golf courses

Planning, design, site choice and planting procedures are keys to better native plant survival.

Randy Cave

23 Pansies for winter color

This easy-care plant makes a strong impact in landscapes across the country in fall, winter and early spring.

Sherry Harlass

27 'The best' superintendents

A golf course superintendent responds to an LM editorial by citing what he believes makes the best superintendents "the best."

James G. Prusa

28 Athletic field aerification

The condition of sports turf is a deciding factor in how effectively a game can be played and how great an exposure to injury an athlete faces.

W.R. (Bill) Chestnut

32 Managers wanted?

TECH CENTER

34 Reseeding and renovating

One of the first decisions facing the lawn care operator/landscaper is whether a home lawn can be restored solely by applying seed and fertilizer, or whether complete renovation is the better option.

Dr. Bill Pound

35 The scoop on poly fertilizers

Manufacturers claim polymer-coated fertilizers last longer, give more control, and have the ability to 'dial in' needed fertility rates.

LAWN CARE INDUSTRY

36 The law that refused to die

Pre-notification has hit Prince Georges County, Md., an area close to Washington, D.C. Most lawn and landscape professionals say the law is unnecessary.

37 Proper software puts reins into LCO's hands

It's too easy to say 'I don't have time to learn.' But computers can save you time, by making certain tasks like payroll, routing and estimating easier and quicker.
