

LANDSCAPE MANAGEMENT

INCORPORATING LAWN CARE INDUSTRY

JULY 1992 VOL. 31, NO. 7

COVER FEATURE

8 Cover story: Seasonal color

Landscape contractors and golf course superintendents reveal how they're satisfying clients' demand for reds, blues, yellows.

18 LM Reports: Soil testing

A basic soil test gives the landscape manager a fertility blueprint and opportunity for profitable add-on offerings.

Ron Hall

22 Aeration: a breather for tired turf

You should be willing to try anything that makes the turf look better. And that includes—especially—soil aeration.

Terry McIver

26 Being a better boss

These ideas might help your employees want to go to work, rather than making them feel they have to.

Bill Pensyl

28 Read contracts before signing

It's not necessary to be an attorney to smell a rotten contract. You may not have ready access to an attorney, but you can still take some precautions on your own.

Kent Miller

32 'The working superintendent'

More than half-a-lifetime caring for golf courses hasn't changed this superintendent's approach to his job—he loves being a hands-on kind of guy.

Jerry Roche

34 Managing busy turf

Basic issues must be addressed to help heavily trafficked turf recover from injury.

TECH CENTER

40 Healthy turf and iron

Researchers have studied for years the link between iron and healthy turfgrass. Iron has been popular for several years with other members of the green industry, especially nursery growers. Only recently has it become a valuable resource with golf course superintendents.

42 White grub control

Research into the lifecycles of white grubs in recent years stresses the importance of soil moisture. That's why poor control usually occurs when chemical controls are applied on drought-stressed turf in mid-summer.

LAWN CARE INDUSTRY

44 Pesticide summit: 'White Paper'

A day-and-a-half of talk finds industry and critics agreeing on some of the broader aspects of pesticide use.

Ron Hall

46 Lieberman bill update

Federal legislative action aimed at lawn/landscape chemicals appears unlikely in spite of late-spring revisions to S. 849, the lawn care notification bill.

Ron Hall

48 What LCOS can tell clients

The PLCAA lays out the new politically correct language of the lawn application industry in a new brochure.

HOT TOPICS

54 Uphill battle in Washington

The president of the American Association of Nurserymen predicts a legislative nightmare if Congress has its way.

61 Equipment Expo revs its engines

The International Lawn, Garden and Power Equipment Expo features business seminars and equipment demonstrations, July 26-28.
