Feds finally fund turfgrass scientist at USDA

BELTSVILLE, MD — The USDA will, sometime early in 2001, fund its first full-time turfgrass research scientist since Jack Murray's position was abolished after his retirement in 1988. This is a result of the passage of the FY2001 Agriculture Appropriations Bill. The new position will be located here at the Agricultural Research Center. The new scientist will work on improving genetic stocks of new and promising turfgrass species, as well as provide scientific support to the National Turfgrass Evaluation Program (NTEP), said Executive Director Kevin N. Morris.
