Scope and Contents

The collection contains a J-Hop program for 1916 and two receipts for classes and fees. The photographs include a 1914 class rivalry photo postcard, image of Wells Hall, and another image of Wells Hall with an unlit bonfire in front. Other photographs include a group of men in front of a house labeled Campus Club and dated December 14, 1913 and a scene of the class rivalry tug of war across the Red Cedar river.

Of note are two photograph postcards that refer to a "movie" being made in Lansing in 1914. One shows people riding on top of trolleys, the other shows a train station, trolley and people.
