Historical Note

University Advancement mission is to secure support for Michigan State University in terms of money, talent, service and advocacy by delivering an integrated program of communications, marketing and engagement. University Development and the Alumni Association are units within University Advancement. The head of the unit is the Vice President for University Advancement.

University Advancement was formed in 2008 to integrate University Development and the MSU Alumni Association.

Scope and Contents

The collection includes photographs, annual reports, and other materials. The annual reports of the Vice President for University Development contain information on fundraising for the University as a whole, as well as more specific information for each college. Years included are 1993 - 1996. Serial #51 (MSU) Scene is also associated with this record group.

The electronic resource contains a PowerPoint presentation from the inaugural "The Campaign for MSU" held at the Wharton Center on September 20, 2002.
