Historical Note

---

The Office of the Vice President for Research and Graduate Studies has reported directly to the University President since its inception in 1976. The unit was preceded by the Office of the Vice President for Research Development (1959-1976). The Office administers a variety of units including the Michigan State University Press, the Environmental Quality Center, and Admissions and Scholarships.

Scope and Contents

Records of the Vice President for Research and Graduate Studies are completely from the administration of its predecessor unit, the Vice President for Research Development. Records include analyses and reports pertaining to graduate schools, budgets, and research at Michigan State University.

Annual Reports are stored separately for 1959-1974 and 1984.

The Electronic Resources include correspondence in the form of e-mail memos and attachments.
