Historical Note

---

The West Shaw Informant was a bimonthly newsletter, begun in 1955, for the all-male dormitory. It served as the medium through which hall government and management communicated with the residents.

---

Scope and Contents

---

The collection contains five issues of the West Shaw Informant for 1955-1956. The issues include an introduction to the hall itself, dress rules of the cafeteria, and reminders of quiet hours and phone usage. There is also information and statistics on intramural sports, which vary from football to bowling to ping pong. Also included are updates about General Council meetings, campus events, movie theater listings and activities with the women of their sister dorm, Mason Hall.
