Historical Note

The Department of Physical Culture and Athletics was created in 1899 with classes for both men and women. In 1916, the name changed to the Department of Physical Training and in 1921 to the Department of Physical Education and was administered by the Division of Applied Science. In 1944, it was called the Department of Physical Education, Health, and Recreation and was in the School of Business and Public Service. In 1955 that Department was called Health, Physical Education, and Recreation and was administered by the School of Education. In 1998, the name changed to the Department of Kinesiology.
