Biographical Note

Henry C. Koch was head of the Humanities Division, then assistant director, associate director and head of Collection Development and Special Services in the Michigan State University Libraries. He was the chief bibliographer at the MSU Libraries until his retirement in 1986.

Koch devoted his energy during his twenty-eight years at Michigan State University to the development of library collections. Koch was active in establishing the Art Library, acquiring the Russell B. Nye Popular Culture Collection, the History of Veterinary Medicine Collection, and the French Monarchy Collection.

Koch was honored with the Distinguished Faculty Award in 1984.
