Scope and Contents Note

The James J. Nugent collection consists of images taken by Nugent at the October 15, 1969 peace march from Michigan State University (MSU) to the Capitol building in Lansing. The march was part of the Moratorium to End the War in Vietnam. The images show people marching, protest signs, and a damaged car. There are also images of people holding signs supporting United Farm Workers. The Capitol building can be seen indistinctly in a few of the images. There is also an image of people holding a mock coffin with the words Vietnam Cambodia Kent. The images do not appear to be taken near the MSU campus. The collection includes photographs, negatives, and contact sheets.
